

Group Tutor Volunteer

Title: Group Tutor Volunteer

Agency: Catholic Community Services of King County

Department: Youth Tutoring Program

Location: One of six tutoring centers (see below)

Position Commitment: Group Tutor Volunteers are generally asked to contribute 2-4 hours/week for a minimum of one school semester during the school-year program. Tutoring takes place between 4:20 – 7:20pm, Monday – Thursday. However, both the students and the program benefits if tutors are able to continue for the entire school year.

Program Description:

YTP is an after-school program serving nearly 500 at-risk students in 1st – 12th grade. The students served live in affordable public housing communities across Seattle. Our students are diverse, representing many nationalities, cultures, languages and religions. Our mission is to tutor, guide and inspire these youth to achieve academic success. Unique among tutoring programs in Seattle, YTP provides large scale, one-to-one and group tutoring.

Position Description:

The Group Tutor Volunteer assists with small group tutoring needs during tutoring hours. On any given night there are a small number of youth who are unable to be matched with a one-on-one tutor. The Group Tutor Volunteer will provide a positive and rewarding learning experience for these youth in a small group tutoring setting assuring that all youth are served.

Preferred Experience:

1. 1 year experience working with youth or leading groups. Experience may include teaching or tutoring for an after school program, former camp counselor experience or involvement as a youth group leader.
2. Proven ability to work with youth in a respectful and positive manner, focusing on increasing self esteem and academic skills.
3. Cultural competence in working with low income youth and families from diverse ethnic and cultural backgrounds.
4. Academic competence in reading, writing and math.
5. Good interpersonal, communication and organizational skills.
6. Positive role model skills and ability to motivate youth in their academic and personal goals.

Application Procedure:

Begin by filling out an application on-line at <http://www.ccsww.org/ytp>. Once you have completed the application process and attended orientation you will be matched with a specific tutoring site. For questions or more information, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator at VolunteerYTP@ccsww.org or 206-328-5970.
